

"AcSEED promotes adoption of best practices in supporting the emotional wellbeing and mental health of young people in UK schools and colleges, and provides recognition for organisations that satisfy the AcSEED criteria for wellbeing support" said Charlotte Gatherer, founder of The AcSEED Initiative. "The AcSEED assessment team were particularly impressed by the strong wellbeing ethos at Scholar Green Primary School, by their comprehensive mental health and wellbeing provisions and focus on continuous improvement, and by their commitment to sharing their knowledge and experience with other schools. We are therefore delighted to announce that Scholar Green Primary School has been accredited with The AcSEED Award".

Scholar Green Primary School also recently applied for and were successful in being appointed as a 'Flagship' school, one of only 3 primary schools chosen in Cheshire East. Working with the Emotionally Healthy Children and Young People's Programme and a cohort of other schools in order to drive the element of the programme and demonstrate commitment to a whole school approach to mental wellbeing.
